

A-Level Classical Civilisation – Beliefs and Ideas

Greek Religion Revision Checklist

| Topic                                 |   | Revised? | RAG |
|---------------------------------------|---|----------|-----|
| The Nature ofthe OlympianGods | The Olympian deities.   |          |     |
|                                       | Anthropomorphism and the scope of the gods power.   |          |     |
|                                       | The reciprocal relationship between gods and mortals.   |          |     |
|                                       | The significance of Homer for Greek ideas about the gods.   |          |     |
|                                       | The significance of Hesiod for Greek ideas about the gods.  |          |     |
|                                       | The significance of the Homeric Hymns for Greek ideas about the gods.   |          |     |
|                                       | The different roles, contexts and functions of the Olympians as reflected in their common epithets (e.g. Zeus Agoraios, Zeus Phratrios, Zeus Philios and Zeus Herkeios) and the extent to which these were thought of as separate, distinct entities. |          |     |
|                                       | The role and nature of hero cults.  |          |     |
|                                       | The extent to which worship of the gods and heroes were Panhellenic, localised or personal.   |          |     |
|                                       | Prescribed source: Black figure Panathenaic Amphora depicting Athena, 333–332 BC.  |          |     |
|                                       |   |          |     |
|                                       | The Eleusinian Mysteries.   |          |     |
|                                       | The importance of initiation, personal religious choice and individual participation at the Eleusinian Mysteries.   |          |     |
|                                       | The Homeric Hymn to Demeter.  |          |     |
| PersonalExperience of             | Prescribed source: Red-figure plaque depicting the cult of Eleusis, c.400–300 BC   |          |     |
|                                       | Asclepius as a god and a hero.  |          |     |
|                                       | The healing cult of Asclepius.  |          |     |
| the Divine                            | Incubation and miracles at Asclepieia.  |          |     |
|                                       | The Asclepion at Epidaurus and miracle inscriptions.  |          |     |
|                                       | Prescribed source: Marble relief/anatomical votive from the shrine of Asclepius on the island of Melos.  |          |     |
|                                       | The local healing cult of Amphiaraus.   |          |     |
|                                       |   |          |     |
|                                       | The oracle at Dodona.   |          |     |

| Religion andSociety | Household Religion  |  |
|-------------------------|---|--|
|                         | Women in Religion   |  |
|                         | Deme Religion Participation   |  |
|                         | Polis Religion Participation  |  |
|                         | Panhellenic Religious Participation   |  |
|                         | Religious Authority:  |  |
|                         | □ Priests   |  |
|                         | □ Priestesses   |  |
|                         | ☐ Archōns   |  |
|                         | □ Epimelētai  |  |
|                         | Impiety and pollution   |  |
|                         | The links between 'politics' and religion.  |  |
|                         | The Panathenaia and its significance for Athens.                                  |  |
|                         |   |  |
|                         | The Athenian Acropolis and its civic importance to Athens.                        |  |
|                         | Prescribed source: The Acropolis  |  |
|                         | ☐ The Parthenon   |  |
|                         | ☐ The Erechtheion   |  |
|                         | Consultation of the Delphic Oracle.   |  |
|                         | Prescribed source: Attic red-figure kylix depicting a consultation of the Pythia, |  |
|                         | by the Kodros painter, c.440–430 BC.  |  |
|                         | Prescribed source: The site of Delphi   |  |
|                         | ☐ The Temple of Apollo  |  |
| Places of               | ☐ The Theatre   |  |
| Worship                 | □ The Sacred Way □ The Treasuries   |  |
|                         |   |  |
|                         | ☐ The Stadium  The Olympia Games and their Panhellenic significance.              |  |
|                         | Prescribed source: The site of Olympia  |  |
|                         | ☐ The Temple of Zeus at Olympia   |  |
|                         | ☐ The chryselephantine cult state of Zeus   |  |
|                         | ☐ The Treasuries  |  |
|                         | ☐ The Echo Stoa   |  |
|                         | ☐ The Stadium   |  |
|                         |   |  |

| Rituals andPriests     | Ideas about why ritual was performed   |  |
|----------------------------|--|--|
|                            | Priests and priestesses, including:  the role of the priest in conducting rituals  |  |
|                            | the connection between aristocratic families and priesthoods role of women in religious rituals  |  |
|                            | The purpose, process and significance of blood sacrifices  |  |
|                            | Prescribed source: Red-figure amphora depicting sacrifice, the Nausicaa Painter, c.450 BC   |  |
|                            | The role of libations in both state and private contexts.  |  |
|                            | The role of votive offerings in both state and private contexts.   |  |
|                            |  |  |
| Religion andPhilosophy | The rise of philosophical thinking and how this was viewed within Greek society, including the extent to which these ideas were truly 'new'. |  |
|                            | The critique of the 'gods of Homer' and their anthropomorphism, as voiced by Xenophanes.   |  |
|                            | Socrates and accusations of 'impiety'.   |  |
|                            | Socrates' ideas on the divine, justice and why he may have disagreed with the Homeric/Hesiodic idea of the gods.                             |  |
|                            | The extent to which Socrates' ideas were radical or controversial.   |  |