Coram Shakespeare Schools Festival

On Wednesday 8 March, a group of KS3 students took part in the Coram Shakespeare Schools Festival and performed their abridged version of Hamlet at the Carriageworks, Leeds. It was a fantastic experience for our students to be inspired and showcase their talents in a professional theatre.

Ms Spencer-Matthews said:

"I was so impressed with our students' professionalism during the tech and dress runs. You would never have known this was a tech team and stage they'd never worked with before. What a fantastic theatre company they make!"

The Coram Shakespeare Schools Foundation is a cultural education charity that works to transform lives through the unique power of Shakespeare. The annual Festival gives a platform for up to 30,000 young people to express themselves and grow in confidence as they take to a professional stage. These performances are the culmination of months of work in which young people of all ages, backgrounds and abilities have been finding their voice in school rehearsal rooms.
