

Drama - Year 7 End of term 1

Drama - Year 7 End of term 1
Topics	Classwork, quizzes, practical, verbal feedback shows student has knowledge of
	Baseline-Core skills	Darkwood Manor - devising from a stimulus	Tragedy and the key ideas of Greek Theatre
	Revolting Rhymes - storytelling, narration	Enchanted Island - developing key techniques	1001 Nights - developing storytelling and ensemble
Developing	Students show an understanding of the basic techniques used in Drama in the various topics. Students show a developing understanding of how to perform, stay in role and comment what is successful and how to improve their work and the work of others. Students can identify different styles and can create drama from a range of stimuli. Students can also use text with some understanding and apply some of the techniques.
Secure	Students show a secure understanding of the range of techniques used in Drama in the various topics. Students confidently show how to perform, stay in role and comment what is successful and how to improve their work and the work of others. Students can clearly identify different styles and can create thoughtful drama from a range of stimuli. Students can also use text with secure understanding and successfully apply a range of techniques to their work.
Complex	Students show an understanding of the range of techniques used in Drama in the various topics. Students confidently show creative ways to perform, stay in role and comment what is successful and how to improve their work and the work of others. Students can work confidently in different styles and can create drama from a range of stimuli. Students can also use text with imaginative understanding and successfully apply a range of drama techniques to their work.		